

Stephen Purcell

Partner

Overview

Stephen is the CEO of PPB Advisory and has been a member of its Board since March 2009.

He joined PPB Advisory from Henry Davis York lawyers where he was Managing Partner for 10 years. During his time at Henry Davis York Stephen was responsible for leading and overseeing significant growth and change, and the emergence of that firm as a market leader in the areas of insolvency and reconstruction services, as an employer of choice and in terms of its response to corporate social responsibility.

Stephen has a strong track record of outstanding vision, leadership and management. Stephen is now applying his experience to PPB Advisory which has grown significantly in the past two years and enjoyed considerable success in attracting and retaining talent, securing quality assignments and strong market recognition for the quality of the service experience as evidenced by PPB Advisory winning 4 BRW Client Choice Awards in 2010.
